

Objectives of the Constituent Assembly

- 1) Referendums and referenda - Direct co-determination in German municipalities, cities and at all other political levels without lobbyists and parties.
- 2) Monetary system - A financial system that serves people and all other living beings without compound interest. Introduction of a separation banking system. Nationalisation of banks and conversion to a central bank instead of borrowing from private customers. Termination of any pledging of persons - birth certificates.
3. basic income a unconditional basic income for all Germans instead of low pensions, old age and child poverty, already from birth.
4. protection of the people protection of the German peoples through appropriate border controls in consultation with neighbouring countries. Elimination of asylum abuse. Returning illegal immigrants to their countries of origin and investing in a modern and holistic family and health policy.
- 5) Dexit - No membership in NATO, the UN and the EU.
6. trade and cultural exchange promoting a peaceful cooperative society in peaceful trade and cultural exchange with other peoples. nationalisation of national wealth.
7. agriculture and healthy nutrition promotion and development of natural agriculture with permaculture, prohibition of harmful products and fertilizers.
8. education Building and promoting a diverse education system for a peaceful and cooperative society. School education suitable for children and interest-related projects.
9. housing market implementation of decent and life-enhancing housing. Promotion of affordable housing, especially for families with children and age-related housing projects.
10. peacekeeping and peacebuilding Promotion of peaceful relations with all peoples of the world, peace talks and peacekeeping.